SATURDAY, MAY 30, 1885.

We wish to remark
That here's to the health
Of that other owl
In the Commonwealth.

CATLETTSBURG is to have water works.

The Grand Lodge of Knight of Pythias will meet at Paris, September 15th, 16th and 17th.

The steamer Guiding Star will arrive to-morrow with an excursion party from Cincinnati.

The Ellison Light Guards, of Manchester, passed down to-day by the steamer Handy on their way to Ripley.

For Sale—Build lots in the city at most reasonable prices. JOHN DULERY, At State National Bank.

The marriage of Miss Sallie Marshall, of Washington, to Mr. Thomas Wilkes, of Salt Lake City, is announced for June 10th.

MESSRS. ROBT. WALLINGFORD and TAYLOR FRISTON of East Maysville caught yesterday on a trot line a buffalo perch that weighed twenty-three pounds.

JUDGE G. S. WALL will deliver an address at the meeting of the Confederate Survivors' Association this afternoon. The ladies especially are invited to be present.

Persons who wish to examine Mr. W. H. Cordin's new book, "A Knight Templar Abroad," will find it at J. C. Pecor & Co.'s drug store. Price, in cloth, $1.50; half morocco, $2.50.

"The Orphan Brigade" will hold its annual reunion at Glasgow, Wednesday, August 12. Many of the survivors of that heroic organization reside within easy reach of Glasgow, and the attendance will probably be greater than at any previous reunion.

MISS LIZZIE BACON, daughter of Mr. John Bacon, died at eleven o'clock last night, at her home on Tuckahoe Ridge, after a long and painful illness. The funeral will take place to-morrow morning at eleven o'clock, from the residence, Burial at Maysville.

The rain on Thursday night was much heavier in the south end of the county than on the side of the divide, between the North Fork of Licking and the Ohio. In the Lewisburg, Higgins and Millwood sections, the entire available force of the neighborhood are engaged in tobacco drying.

RECENT rains put the streams of the county in fine fishing order, and revealed the fact that all the fish have not yet been silted out. Cat fish weighing from nine and a half to four pounds, have, in frequent instances, been taken in the North fork, about Lewisburg, and in Taylor's dam. Meantime seining goes on uninterrupted.

It is to be regretted that many ponds, which two and three years ago were stocked with carp, are now being depleted by their owners. They say the carp do not bite, and hence they are getting rid of them. Within a short time this course will be regretted. No better table fish exists if boiled or baked. They are not fit to fry.

The graves of the Federal dead at the cemetery are garlanded with flowers to-day and have been visited by a large number of our citizens. The work was done under the auspices of Joseph Heiser Post, G. A. R., of this city. The members of the post left by the steamer St. Lawrence this morning for Ripley to attend the decoration ceremonies there and witness the unveiling of the soldiers' monument.

We have been shown a letter from Mr. N. Cradit, Superintendent of the Ripley gas works, which states that instead of $21 as printed in the BULLETIN, the town pays $23.50 a year for each street lamp, and in addition to this pays the expenses of lighting them and keeping them in repair. From this it appears that the cost of each lamp at Ripley is greater than the cost is in this city, under the present contract with the gas company.

The meetings in the M. E. Church during the past week have resulted in much good, there having been quite a number of conversations and sanctifications. The ladies who have been assisting the pastor have won the favor of the people. The services to-morrow will be followed by a prayer meeting for all christians from 8:30 to 9:30 a. m., services at 11 a. m., 3 p. m., and evening. The evening service will commence at six o'clock with a prayer meeting to be followed by a testimony meeting and a bible reading by Mrs. Vonholts.

M. C. HUTCHINS, P. M.

There is at least one postmaster in the United States who knows the meaning of a change in Administrations. His name is Peterson, and he lives in Sangamon County, Ill. When a score of his towns-people signed a letter accusing him of "Offensive partisanship" and demanding his immediate removal, Mr. Peterson, who is not an agreeable fellow, informed us it follows:

"I heartily concur in the above I think I ought to be bounced at once." The department will doubtless accommodate Mr. Peterson, when and where he has laid down the cares of official life he should go out among his Republican brethren who have been or are to be bounced and shamed upon the sweetness of acceptance of what is inevitable.—Louisville Times.

"How Did I Get Dyspepsia?"

Many a sufferer wants to know that Well, fifty ways. Tough meat, heavy hot bread, soggy pie, hurried eating, cross company at table, insufficient chewing, constant worry and all the others. How shall I get rid of dyspepsia?" That is plain enough. Take the best iron tonic in the world—Brown's Iron Bitter. It seems almost to work miracles. Mr. Berry, of Petersburg, Va., had chronic dyspepsia for two years. Brown's Iron Bitters cured him. Mr. Cavins, of Dinwiddie, had it for twenty years, Brown's Iron Bitters cured him likewise. Try it.

MRS. McDONALD & CO., of Cincinnati, last night submitted to the gas committee of the council a proposition which is in substance as follows: The firm propose if the city will grant the necessary privileges, to build modern gas works, with the capacity to supply a city of 20,000 population, and to furnish gas to the city at $20 a year for each post. For the first three years private consumers will be supplied at $1.75 a thousand feet and after that period at $1.50 a thousand foot. The proposition will be submitted to the council.

Struck by Two Young Savannahians. Yesterday it was developed that one-fifth of ticket No. 59,075, in the Louisiana State Lottery, in the drawing of April 14th, was purchased by two young men of Savannah, Messrs. John W. Haywood and L. M. Verdery, who have secured for 50 cents each the handsome sum of $7,500. They are clever, worthy young gentlemen, have congratulations upon their fortune.—[From the Savannah Evening Times, April 19th.]

The levy for 1885 as fixed by the council is for revenue and general purposes, 90 cents on the $100; for schools, 10 cents; for water bonds, 25 cents. The tax on male dogs is $1 and on females $2.50 and hogs $1.

THE CHURCHES.

Services will be held as usual at the M. E. Church, South, to-morrow.

Services at St. Patrick's Church to-morrow will be as follows: First mass, 5:30 a. m.; second mass, 7:30 a. m., by Right Rev. Bishop Mason. At this mass the children will receive their first holy communion, and at the third mass, at 10:30 a. m., which will be a high mass, they will be confirmed.

Philadelphia Penny Groceries.

(Philadelphia Times.)

There are hundreds of small grocery stores in this city where the majority of the customers make penny purchases, and a sale to one purchaser, amounting to 10 cents, is considered by the grocer a good big bill. These stores are generally located in small streets, and are mostly a great many are situated on more prominent thoroughfares. The penny groceries are increasing, so a large retail grocer said Monday. He also said that they were more numerous than the penny grocer was the poor man's enemy.

"Because," went on the grocer, "the poor man pays twice as much for his provisions in the long run and doesn't get a good quality as if he bought in moderate quantities at a larger grocer."

Twenty-five cents judiciously expended in a penny grocery will fill a good market basket. Here is what a penny grocer at Seventh and Wall street, just above Christian, gives as an illustration of what a quarter of a dollar will buy:

Three onions of coffee..... 1c
One ounce of tea..... 1c
Three ounces of rice..... 1c
Six sticks of kindling wood..... 1c
Four potatoes (gold)..... 1c
Three ounces of butter..... 1c
Four ounces of starch..... 1c
Enough for a rice pudding..... 1c
Small teacup of black molasses..... 1c
Quarter of a yard of lamp wick..... 1c
A pound of olive margarine..... 1c
Three ounces of lard..... 1c
Two pickles..... 1c

Total 25c

A SAVORY FOR A DAY.

These purchases will keep a small family for a day. The coffee will be sufficient for a big potful and the tea is enough for two drawings. The rice and molasses will make a small pudding. The state bacon is good for a tea and coffee meal, as is sufficient for two tea and coffee. The onions and potatoes and butter, if there is a home about or a bit of cold meat, will make a stew or soup, with a penny bunch of pot herbs added. There is enough soap to wash clothes, a lamp wick to light the lamp, a piece of coal to scuttle of coal and kindling wood to build a fire in the morning. Besides, there's lard, molasses and the next thing to butter, olive margarine, and a relish to add to the meal.

"There's a land that's fairer than day,
And by faith we can see it afar;
It's a land where all is fair,
To prepare us for dwelling-place there;

In the sweet by-and-by,
We shall sing when we wake up there."

We should like to call your attention to some sales made in our store this over and over again, and again. She droned over this lugubrious tune until Mollie, the buxom chambermaid of the florist, the almoner and tiring of Edith's racket, said: "Oh, you old Sweet-and-Bitter!"

CHOLERA INOCULATION

THE WORK OF THE INVESTIGATING COMMISSION IN SPAIN.

Exact Situation of the Anglo-Russian Mind-dle Given from a St. Petersburg Point of View—New Canal—Fighting the Dead—Foreign Notes.

MADRID, May 30.—An interview was had at the hospital of San Juan de Dios with Dr. Mendoza, a member of the recently appointed medical cholera commission and a noted Madrid specialist. Dr. Mendoza stated that no orders had yet been received from the government, that he had not yet been told when the commission would begin its work. Dr. Ferran will, of course, be present. The scope of the investigation, as stated by Dr. Mendoza, included:—First, the cutting off of Ferran's nose; second, the removal of the dead; third, the determination of the relations of this bacillus to cholera and to cholera germs of other investigations; second, the inoculation of animals and man to Dr. Ferran's method and the determination of the disease caused in them; third, inoculation of human beings and the close study of the effects of the virus on them; also the collection and comparison of testimony based on the results of such inoculation. It is not yet known whether the commission will visit the cholera district.

The Exact Situation.

LONDON, May 30.—The England's St. Petersburg correspondent says the following is the exact state of the Afghan frontier negotiations at the present time: "The amner succeeded Pahsh to Zulfiqar. The question is unsolved as to whether the Zulfiqar pass shall form a part of the boundary or remain wholly in Afghanistan. Russia insists that Mervchak belongs to Persia. England objects and makes that retention of Mervchak a sine qua non."

The following advices have been received from Simion: "Stewart, Hothlitz, and Peacock publicly entered Herat on May 10, on their master's invitation. The governor received them at a formal audience attended by the Afghan general. The entire assembly paraded. Their reception from all classes was extremely gratifying. The officers left Herat the 13th. It is reported that 300 cossacks still hold Zulfiqar and Ak Robat."

St. Petersburg's Canal.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 30.—The sea canal has formally opened. The czar and the czarsina, accompanied by the imperial state magnates and a large crowd of citizens were present at the ceremony. After the ceremony their majesties proceeded to Constant and inspected the frigate Skobeloff and reviewed the squadron, which performed various evolutions. They then returned to the Peterhof palace.

After the ceremony their majesties proceeded to Constant and inspected the frigate Skobeloff and reviewed the squadron, which performed various evolutions. They then returned to the Peterhof palace.

Opportune Illness.

LONDON, May 30.—The Standard, while only sympathizing with Lord Hartington on account of his ill-treatment of it, reported he had been attacked at Dublin, intimates his illness is opportune, in view of the difficulty in explaining the government's policy in reviewing the Irish Crimes act.

Tidy for Stanley.

LONDON, May 30.—The Times in an editorial says: "Henry M. Stanley in his campaign Europe in behalf of the Congo state has shown great energy, enthusiasm and tenacity and displayed in his book on the Congo. His zeal is boundless; his industry is unconquerable."
